

The 2007 San Francisco Jug Band Festival

August 25-26 2007

August 25, 10AM - 6PM: FREE at the Bandshell in Golden Gate Park featuring many of the best local and regional jug bands including:

- The Leasebreakers
- Jeb Brady
- The Quake City Jug Band
- The Loose Licks Jug Band
- The Barking Spiders (Robert Armstrong and Keith Cary)
- Devine's Jug Band
- The Babar Jug Band
- The Tarantulas Jug Band

And more – wandering jug bands, kid's programs, vendors, swing dancing, raffle

August 25, 7PM & 9PM: The Roxie Theater, 3117 16th Street; the West Coast premier of "Chasin' Gus' Ghost" – a documentary on jug band music; tickets $9 at the door

August 26, 8PM: The Great American Music Hall in San Francisco featuring:

- John Sebastian (The Even Dozen Jug Band, The Lovin' Spoonful)
- Jim Kweskin (The Jim Kweskin Jug Band)
- Geoff Muldaur (The Jim Kweskin Jug Band, The J Band)
- David Grisman (The Even Dozen Jug Band)
- The Barbecue Orchestra (founded by Fritz Richmond)

Plus other surprise special guests including "the secret jug band queen"

Sponsored by the California Jug Band Association (www.jugfest.org) and made possible through the generous support of Todd Kwait. Tickets: $28 (advance), $30 (door), $25 (members of CJBA).

Check www.jugfest.org for developing details and information