

CHINESE
NEW YEAR
SPECTACULAR
全球華人新年晚會

Dear SLAC employees,

Greetings!

The Chinese New Year Spectacular, previously Chinese New Year Gala, is an important platform for celebrating the Chinese New Year and appreciating Chinese traditional culture and arts, and features world-class performances of traditional artistry. The performances transport the audience back in time to ancient China—with colorful costumes, graceful dancing and booming drums, mixing high-tech set design with ancient values, bringing myths and legends to life. We bring our audience the essence, the true spirit of the Chinese culture expressed in the forms of classical performing arts, giving people a deeper understanding and connection to the Chinese culture.

In 2006, NTDTV's Global Spectacular was performed in 17 cities worldwide (including New York City, at Radio City Music Hall Broadway theatre) , attracting over 300 artists, 1,000 volunteers, and live audiences totaling more than 45,000. The show is rated the top 7th show in the US by Billboard Magazine earlier this year.

The 2007 Chinese New Year Spectacular is going to be grander than ever, with touring performances through over 20 major cities worldwide with live audience of 100,000 in total, and with an expected live audience of 9,000 in San Francisco.
